

CAMP OFFICERS

Commander Joey Dickerson

1st Lieutenant Commander Kevin Roberson

2nd Lieutenant Commander William Jackson

> Adjutant George Kearney

Chaplain Chad McHenry

Color Sergeant William Jackson

Surgeon Stanley Bennett

Judge Advocate Chad McHenry

Historian Kevin Brogden

Web Master Allen Dew

Newsletter Editor Kevin Roberson

Contents

From the 1st Lt Commander 1

From the 2cnd Lt. Commander 2
From the Adjutant 3
When the Yankees Were Rebels 4
Recent Photographs (OakWood) 5-6
Recent Photographs (Pettigrew Grave) 7
Recent Photographs (State Capital)8

Pledges

Pledge to the Flag of the United States of America

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under GOD, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

> Salute to the Confederate Flag

I salute the confederate flag with affection, reverence and undying devotion to the cause for which it stands.

> Salute to the North Carolina Flag

I salute the North Carolina Flag and pledge to the Old North State Love, Loyalty and Faith.

The Charge

To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles he loved and which made him glorious and which you also cherish.

From the 1st Lt. Commander:

Better late than never, sorry for the delay, but this month's newsletter is now complete. We have a lot of things going on in the camp. It looks like the raffle was a big success. Now it is time to sell some onions. Joey is looking for folks to ride to the reunion later in April with him, and we all know Confederate Memorial Day is coming up in May. George is still looking for folks for the Honor Guard, so let him know if you are interested. Also, Joey will be picking up some iron crosses for Virginia so if you are interested let him know to get you one.

Mark Pace will be at the Richard Thornton Public Library on April 14th from 2:00-3:00. This is part of the "Bicentennial Distinguished Speaker Series" and Mark will be sharing information, and his experience researching family records.

I have Included some pictures of a recent trip Joey and Dee took to Pettigrew's grave, as well as some photos from a trip the boys and I took to the Governor's Mansion and Historic Oakwood Cemetery. The camp was also well represented recently at Lee's Birthday celebration. The trip to Oakwood was spurred on by some research I have been doing for a friend of mine. His 3rd Great Grandfather was Thomas D Woodliff, A Granville county man, In Company E of the 15th NC. This is the same Company my 2cnd Great Granfather Anthony Stanton was in. I have Included a picture of Pvt Woodliff's grave below. Wyatt used my cell phone, and the GPS coordinates from the find a grave app, to find the grave, and he lead us straight to it.

Kevin Roberson 1st Lt Commander

From the 2cnd Lt. Commander:

As I read the newspaper or watch the news on TV, my heart is saddened at the fact that everything we have always held righteous and dear to our heart is under vicious attack by some evil force. Our constitution, the church, the christian family and even the holy institution of marriage is now fair game for this evil force. These people who are fighting all of these precious institutions seem to have no real sense of direction, no real goal except to destroy what is right and proper in God's eyes. But in all of this mishap I find comfort in knowing that these people are the same people who are out to destroy our Southern Heritage.

They fight Confederate symbols even down to the graves of our glorious southern hero's. These cowardly acts they perform in the darkness of the night and in the halls of our legislative buildings only show how afraid they are of our righteous heritage. These cowardly acts clearly show me that we are on the right side, so let us all stand shoulder to shoulder in this fight that has been forced upon us. Surely good and righteousness will win in the end. Let us all stand fast for the cause.

William Jackson 2cnd Lt Commander

NEW RECRUITS

When was the last time you tried to recruit a new member for the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Bullock Camp?

Do you ever approach anyone and ask if they are interested?

Try it once in a while and you might be surprised to find out that there are prospective members just waiting to join!

Don't just wait for someone to ask you first.

Words To Remember...

Noble is the courage that performs

without hope or without reward

-Anonymous

From The Adjutant:

We have our Memorial Service coming up in May at Kittrell, and we are still looking for new members for the Camp Honor Guard. If anyone is interested, please either contact Commander Dickerson or myself. If you want to join the Honor Guard, but only have a uniform, we will see if we can borrow a rifle for you. If you want to join the Honor Guard and are looking to purchase a uniform, I can share a few places and web sites to look for items.

George Kearney Camp Adjutant

FLAGS ACROSS THE CAROLINAS

The SCV Mechanized Cavalry of North Carolina is proud to announce that the "FLAGS ACROSS THE CAROLINAS" fund has been officially established to raise money to support the project of the placement of mega size Confederate flags in many high profile locations on private land across the Carolinas.

This exciting project was adopted by the NCSCVMC in a partnership with the North Carolina Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans to post the Confederate Battle Flag like the mega flags flying currently in other States all over the South like the twelve new flags flying in the State of Virginia.

There is a minimum donation of $5.50 required to receive one of these new North Carolina Division pins but all money donated above the minimum amount will be collected and donated by NB Forrest Camp 803 to this project to fly our Flags Across The Carolinas! These pins can also be individually postage with your order. Please submit completed form & check payable to NB Forrest Camp 803 and mail to: Adjutant Chris Nance

210 High Ridge Drive, Apt. H Sanford, NC 27330

Additional Info or Would Like to Donate Land for a Flag - Contact: Commander Kevin Stone scvmechcav@hotmail.com

919-721-1231

Name:
Address:
City, State	and Zip Code:
City, State	and Zip Code:

Thank You for Your Support!!!

When the Yankees Were Rebels

Below, slave-holding and slave-trading rebels of Massachusetts resisted the might of British troops sent to disperse them, and the Southern colonies voluntarily assisted New England in its war to end British rule. Some 86 years later Southern rebels at Manassas resisted the might of New England troops sent to disperse them but had no assistance in its war to end New England rule.

Bernhard Thuersam, www.Circa1865.com When the Yankees Were Rebels

"At five o'clock on Wednesday morning, a man on horseback, without cape or coat, galloped into Lexington, shouting that the British were coming up the road. Some called him to stop; but he rushed on in that mad way toward Concord. Then it was and threats which had been heaped upon us so long, and swore that they should be avenged that day. Some ran through the streets, waving their hats over their heads, and hurrahing for their rights.

The women ran from house to house, gathering muskets for the militia, and carrying ammunition in their aprons. No one was idle, and no one was afraid to face all the British troops - yes, and fight them too, if fighting was to be done. At last the drum beat to arms. We seized our muskets and rushed to the green. Captain Parker drew us up, seventy strong, in double rank; telling us to fight bravely in the cause for freedom.

could seventy men do against a thousand? Their leader galloped up like a madman; cursing, shouting, and ordering us to disperse. All at once they poured a volley at us . . . they fired again; then the dreadful scene began. The enemy marched to the

Then were heard their drums beating, and saw the bayonets peeping out from the dust, and glittering in the sun. But what storehouses, broke them open, and began the work of destruction. The flour was emptied into the river; the ball, which we had gathered with so much care, stolen or sunk in wells, and our two cannon battered and abused till they were unfit for use. Next day they began to break up the bridges;

And soon the hills and lanes were swarming with the boys from Reading and Roxbury, who had heard of their friends being shot . . . we rushed headlong on the murderers, and that the blood boiled in our veins. We remembered the insults drove them and their commander out of the town. O! It was glorious to be in that chase - glorious! Remember boys, how and this was more than we could bear.

or "Yankees" by his men! Yes, and cowards, too - cowards! The blood boils at the word! And then our bleeding men behind us! - it was glory, I say lads, to chase the rascals like deer up the road, and make them feel that "rebels" could fight as well as they!"

often we were insulted by [General] Gage, and called "rebels,"

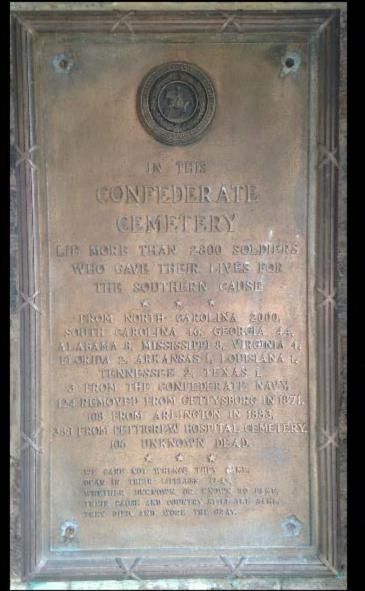

(Camp-Fires of the Revolution, Henry Clay Watson, Lindsay & Blakiston, 1854, pp. 23-27)

Oakwood Cemetery

Oakwood Cemetery

Gen. James Johnston Pettigrew gravesite

Historic State Capitol Building